Industry Innovation
Modern mining means exciting advances in AI, data implementation, nanotech, and ideas just in their infancy.

Responsible Mining
As the stewards of many of our natural resources, we're emphasizing ESG and initiatives important to a sustainable future.

Workforce Development
Support and create strategies to develop the next generation of mining engineers and foster a future of educated professionals.

Health & Safety
Connect with a community focused on health & safety in the industry. After all, the best thing to come out of a mine is a miner.

The Mining Record will cover this major event and will be placed in the hands of the industry's decision makers. It is critical during this time in mining that suppliers maintain their presence in the industry.
